

Foundation for Public Affairs Contribution Form

Support vital research on emerging public affairs trends. Contribute to the Foundation for Public Affairs.

Since 1964, the Foundation for Public Affairs — the Public Affairs Council's 501(c)(3) research affiliate — has conducted research on emerging public policy issues and trends that affect the practice of public affairs.

And each year, it publishes several new reports on issues public affairs professionals need to know about, including:

- Corporate social responsibility
- Government relations in Brazil, Russia, India, China and the EU
- Risk, crisis and reputation management
- Social media and stakeholder communication
