

Eric Ebenstein

Director, Northeast Region, State and Local
Chief of Staff to Vice President, Americas & US
Government Relations

Eric serves as the Director of Government Relations for the Northeast Region on the State and Local team for HP as well as Chief of Staff to Maria Cino, the Vice President for Americas & US. He has responsibility for driving HP's policy initiatives in the region, as well as coordinating business outreach through HP's different business lines. Eric works with the rest of the State and Local team, in partnership with HP business leaders and employees across the country, to provide consistent messaging and outreach to HP's public sector customers.

Prior to joining HP in June of 2011, he was a Director and Counsel for TechAmerica, the leading technology trade association in Washington, DC and a trial attorney at the United States Department of Transportation.

Eric holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from Lehigh University, from which he graduated Magna Cum Laude and Phi Beta Kappa and a Juris Doctor degree from the Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law. He is based in HP's Washington, DC office.

Eric lives in Northern Virginia with his wife and daughter.