Message from the Chair

Thank you, FamMedPAC supporters!

Thanks to you, we are just over half way to our election cycle goal of raising $1 million dollars for the 2016 elections. In fact, our members donated more in 2015 than in any previous year. Traditionally, fundraising totals increase in the second year of the two-year cycle, so the $1 million goal is within reach. If the historical pattern holds, the 2016 election cycle will be the PAC's best fundraising cycle ever. Your contributions allowed the PAC to contribute to more candidates and at a higher level in 2015 than in any other year. Our message is being heard on Capitol Hill and in Congressional Districts across our country.

The final numbers are in for 2015 and the winners of the 2015 FamMedPAC Chapter Awards have been determined. FamMedPAC will present the annual PAC Chapter Awards at the National Conference of Constituency Leaders to the chapters who contributed the highest amount to the PAC in 2015, and the Chairman's Award to the chapter with the highest percentage of its members contributing to the PAC at the Club George level and above. Please encourage your fellow chapter members to support FamMedPAC and help your Chapter win this year.

Your financial support is the key to making FamMedPAC the effective tool it is today. Additionally, you can help promote family medicine's issues by attending the Family Medicine Congressional Conference (FMCC) on April 18-19 in Washington, DC. FMCC offers members the opportunity to advocate for family medicine directly with their Members of Congress and Senators. On day one, attendees will gain practical, hands-on experience, while exploring issues important to family medicine. On day two, attendees will practice what they learned on the Hill. Register now.

Please enjoy this latest issue of the FamMedPAC Report. I look forward to seeing many of you at FMCC, so I can personally thank you for all that you do to promote our specialty.

Randy Wexler, MD
Chair, FamMedPAC Board of Directors

Family Medicine Congressional Conference 2016

Join your colleagues at the Family Medicine Congressional Conference \(FMCC\), April 18-19 in Washington, DC. Bring your experiences to the Hill. Discuss MACRA, GME, chronic disease management support, and more with your legislators. Tell your members of Congress why the Primary Care Caucus is important and why they should join.

Register by March 4 and save \$45.

Sponsored by AAFP and the Council of Academic Family Medicine (CAFM), FMCC educates participants on family medicine's legislative priority issues, trains attendees on how to lobby on Capitol Hill, and allows participants to put these skills to use with federal legislators and their staff. Advocacy is a high priority of AAFP and the CAFM organizations. Every family physician and educator can learn how to be effective in Washington and at home.

Family Medicine Congressional Conference April 18-19 in Washington, DC

Family medicine needs a voice. Learn how to turn your experiences into teaching moments. Explore vital issues, and then confidently address Congress with fellow family physicians on payment reform, workforce, and other vital topics. Register now.

Building Relationships

Connecticut Academy of Family Physicians Deputy Vice President Mary Yokose welcomed Representative Joe Courtney (D-CT) to the Connecticut Chapter's annual meeting. Rep. Courtney is a co-chair of the newly formed Primary Care Caucus in the House of Representatives.

FamMedPAC Board member Conrad Flick attended a local fundraiser in North Carolina for his Senator, Richard Burr (R-NC). Senator Burr is a member of the Health Subcommittee of the Senate Finance Committee.

AAFP Board member Mott Blair, MD, attended a local event for his Congressman, Representative C.K. Butterfield (D-NC). Rep. Butterfield sits on the Health Subcommittee of the House Energy and Commerce Committee.

2015-2016 Fundraising

FamMedPAC received strong support from AAFP members in 2015, which put your PAC half way to our election-cycle goal of $1 million. The PAC received $501,046 in donations from 2,491 AAFP members in 2015 with an average donation of $201. Family medicine can be proud. This is the highest one-year total ever.

Contributions are still needed for strong representation on the Hill. If every AAFP member contributed just $100 a year to FamMedPAC (about $0.27 a day), your PAC would be the largest specialty medical PAC in the country, fighting for you and your patients. Let's work together to encourage fellow AAFP members and peers to support FamMedPAC.
