

GET TO KNOW OUR GROUPS!

Similar to the constituents you serve, the physician and dentist community in Washington, DC, represents various specialties and interests across the country.

1 ABOUT US

Comprised of more than fifteen (15) individual specialty physician and dental organizations, we operate independently while working collaboratively to help educate, engage, and empower members of Congress about our issues.

2 WHO WE REPRESENT

Collectively, our organizations represent over 840,000 health care providers nationwide and treat thousands of your constituents every day,

3 WHAT'S KEEPING OUR MEMBERS UP AT NIGHT?

Access to quality, affordable health care, adequate physician payment/reimbursement, patient safety, regulatory and administrative burdens, new and innovative payment models, medical liability reform, HIT/Interoperability, and more.

4 WHO ARE OUR TOP ADVOCATES?

Physician and dentist candidates, members of Congress, and key leadership, particularly members on committees of jurisdiction that handle health care policies and procedures.

5 WHO DO WE SUPPORT?

While each organization has individual guidelines for contributing and disbursing funds, all 15+ specialty PACs are nonpartisan and support U.S. House and Senate candidates for Congress.

6 DID YOU KNOW?

Health professionals in Congress remain in the minority with roughly three (3) percent representation. Our groups remain committed to educating and training physicians and dentists interested in running for public office.
